Editorial Note

This volume transcribes the English portion of CSS Islamic Studies past papers from 2015 through 2026. The wording and order follow the accessible annual scans and public archives; typography and punctuation have been regularized for readability.

Answer policy

Answers were checked against the available keys and corrected where a listed key was clearly inconsistent with the question. When no option is correct, the actual answer is stated instead of forcing a letter.

Archive limitations

The accessible 2016 and 2020 archives preserve 10 and 13 objective questions respectively. The 2022 archive repeats one question at positions 16 and 20. These limitations are disclosed and preserved; missing material has not been invented.

Source & Compilation Note

- Coverage: CSS Islamic Studies / Islamiyat annual papers, 2015–2026.
- Primary transcription basis: accessible annual paper scans and public past-paper archives. Where copies differed, the scan or the clearer wording was preferred.
- Objective answers are supplied for study use. Clear answer-key errors were corrected and any no-listed-option cases are explicitly identified.
- This document is an independent study compilation. It is not an official publication of the Federal Public Service Commission.
- Prepared as an editable Microsoft Word document; no question text is embedded as an image.
