

The Master Anatomy

The syllabus, the twelve papers of 2015–2026, and the plan — the map you read before anything else

Nine topics built from the seven syllabus heads. Every descriptive question (85, including the short-note options) and every recovered MCQ (223) set between 2015 and 2026 has been placed, counted and read for its pattern. This document tells you what is asked, how often, in what words, what has never been asked yet, and how an Islamic Studies answer earns its marks.

Compulsory paper · 100 marks · pass mark 40. After English Essay and Precis, Islamic Studies is the paper that fails the largest number of candidates. It is not failed for lack of faith or knowledge; it is failed for lack of structure, lack of evidence and lack of relevance. These notes are built to fix exactly those three things.

Every heading is taken from the words of the question. Every point carries its evidence — the Quran first, then the Hadith, then the scholars — inside the point itself, never in a separate list.

How to Use This Document

What this document is

This is not a book of Islamic Studies. It contains very little of the subject itself. It is the map you study before you study — and the map you come back to in the last fortnight, when you have to decide what to revise.

It does five jobs:

1. It explains the paper. What the syllabus says, how the paper is printed, how many questions you answer, how much time each gets, and how marks are actually earned.
2. It dissects the record. Every descriptive question from 2015 to 2026 (85 questions, with the short-note parts that could be recovered) and every recovered MCQ (223 items) has been tagged by topic, by family and by command word.
3. It rebuilds the syllabus into nine topics. The seven syllabus heads are uneven: some hold one line, one holds eight. They are rebuilt into nine balanced topics, each weighted by how often the examiner visits it.
4. It sets the method. How an Islamic Studies answer is built: the answer map, headings from the question words, evidence inside every heading, figures, the contemporary angle, and the conclusion.
5. It gives you a plan. A sixteen-week timetable, a memorisation routine for the verses and ahadith, and the drill for the day of the paper.

Who it is written for

It is written for someone who has studied Islamiyat at school and college but has never written a twenty-mark answer for an examiner who reads three hundred scripts in a week. It assumes you are a believer who knows the basics; it does not assume you know how to prove them on paper.

- Every technical term is explained the first time it appears, and again in the word tables of Part Zero.
- Key terms you must be able to define are printed in bold green, like Tawhid; dates and numbers you must memorise are printed in bold navy, like 10 AH.
- The English is deliberately simple. Where a scholar's words are worth quoting in the exam, they are given in full and explained.
- Arabic is always followed by an English translation and a short reference. You are never expected to write Arabic you are not sure of.

The family of documents

This Master Anatomy is the first document of the set. Each of the nine topics then gets two Word documents, and when all nine are finished, five combined documents are compiled from them.

Figure 1 • The family of documents. The Master Anatomy maps the paper; each topic has a Knowledge Base (KB) and a Question Answers (QA) document; five volumes are compiled from all nine topics at the end.

Code	Document	What it does
MA	The Master Anatomy	This document: the paper, the record, the nine topics, the method, the plan.
TnKB	Topic Knowledge Base (T1KB ... T9KB)	Everything you need to know for the topic, told simply, with deep headings (up to five levels), evidence inside every point, figures, the contemporary challenges and hot debates, five likely questions, one-liners and a revision sheet.
TnQA	Topic Question Answers (T1QA ... T9QA)	Every past-paper question of the topic answered as a model: answer map, decoding of the question, headings from the question words, evidence in every heading, figures and conclusion.
EB	The Evidence Bank (compiled at the end)	Every Quranic verse, hadith and scholarly view used in all nine topics, collected and arranged topic by topic and sub-topic by sub-topic, for memorisation.
QA	The Question Answers print volume	All nine TnQA documents in one volume, in syllabus order.
OL	The One-Liner and MCQ Bank	The one-liners of every KB plus the MCQ facts, arranged for the objective part.
RN	The Revision Notes	The revision sheets of all nine topics: the whole paper in a few dozen pages for the last week.
PR	The Prediction Papers (Sets 1–3)	Three complete papers set exactly as FPSC prints them — 20 MCQs and 7 descriptive questions each — with full model answers.

How the pages are built

Every document in the set uses the same page furniture, so you always know what you are looking at. The most important piece is the evidence card. There are three kinds, and they always sit inside the point they prove:

✦ QURAN

﴿وَمَا خَلَقْتُ الْجِنَّ وَالْإِنْسَ إِلَّا لِيَعْبُدُونِ﴾

“And I did not create the jinn and mankind except to worship Me.” (Adh-Dhariyat, Quran)

→ The point it proves is always written after the arrow — this is the sentence that turns a quotation into an argument. Here: the purpose of human life is worship (ibadah) in its widest sense.

✦ HADITH

إِنَّمَا الْأَعْمَالُ بِالنِّيَّاتِ، وَإِنَّمَا لِكُلِّ امْرِئٍ مَا نَوَى

“Actions are judged only by intentions, and every person will have only what he intended.” (Al-Bukhari and Muslim)

→ A gold card is a hadith. The reference names only the collection, as you will write it in the exam.

✦ SCHOLARLY VIEW

Allama Muhammad Iqbal · poet-philosopher, Pakistan's national thinker

In The Reconstruction of Religious Thought in Islam, Iqbal calls Ijtihad 'the principle of movement in the structure of Islam' — the means by which a final revelation meets a changing world.

→ A blue card is a scholar's view. When the exact words are well-known they are given in quotation marks; when they are not, the view is summarised in plain English — never invented.

Around the cards you will meet five kinds of boxes:

Box	What it means
TRAP	A mistake candidates commonly make — a weak hadith, a misquoted verse, a wrong date, an angle that annoys examiners.
EXAMINER'S EYE	What the examiner is looking for in this question or topic, and how to give it to him or her.
HOT DEBATE	A contemporary challenge, narrative or discourse — Islamophobia, feminism, AI, climate, riba, sectarianism — with the balanced Islamic answer.
PAKISTAN ANGLE	The Constitution, the institutions, the laws and the data that make an answer applied rather than abstract.
REMEMBER	A fact, list or line worth memorising word for word.

The rules these notes keep

Because Islamic Studies touches faith, and because you never know who your examiner is, every document in this set keeps the same rules:

1. The Quran first. Every Quranic verse is printed from a verified Uthmani text, letter for letter, with a standard simple-English translation of its meaning. It is referenced only as (Surah, Quran) — for example (Al-Baqarah, Quran).
2. Authentic Hadith only. Ahadith are taken from the well-known collections — Al-Bukhari, Muslim, Abu Dawud, Al-Tirmidhi, Al-Nasa'i, Ibn Majah, the Muwatta of Imam Malik and the Musnad of Imam Ahmad — and referenced by collection only, for example (Al-Bukhari). Famous sayings that are weak or wrongly attributed are flagged, not used.

3. No maslak, no sect, no controversy. No school of thought is attacked or promoted; controversial personalities and disputed questions are left out. Where a fiqh ruling is needed, the Hanafi position is given, because it is the school of the majority in Pakistan — and the other schools are mentioned respectfully where they differ.
4. Scholars support; they never replace. A scholar is quoted after the Quran and Sunnah, never instead of them. The scholars quoted are those accepted across the Muslim world, the authors on the FPSC reading list, and respected non-Muslim observers.
5. Simple English. Short sentences. One idea per sentence. Every Arabic term explained.

EXAMINER'S EYE • WHY NEUTRALITY SCORES

The examiner may be a traditional scholar, a university professor, a retired civil servant or a modern-minded academic. An answer that attacks a sect, praises a controversial figure or takes a side in a disputed question can lose marks with any of them. An answer that argues from the Quran and the Sunnah, with respect for all schools, cannot lose with any of them.

The reading order

1. Read Part Zero slowly. It is Islamic Studies from zero: the vocabulary, the structure of the religion, the sources, and the whole syllabus in twenty minutes.
2. Read Parts One to Three once, quickly. They explain the paper and the record. You do not need to memorise them.
3. Read the topic dossier in Part Four just before you begin that topic's Knowledge Base.
4. Read Part Five (method) before you write your first practice answer, and again before your first prediction paper.
5. Return to Part Three and Part Six in the last fortnight to decide what to revise.

Part Zero — Islamic Studies from Zero

0.1 What this paper is — and what it is not

The CSS paper is called Islamic Studies, but it is not a test of how much religious information you carry. It is a test of whether you can explain Islam as a complete system of life, prove every claim from its sources, and apply it to the problems of today — especially the problems of Pakistan.

The paper IS ...	The paper is NOT ... a test of concepts (Din, Tawhid, Ihsan, Shura, Ijtihad) and their impact on the individual and society	a test of fiqh details (how many rak'at, which position of hands)
a test of evidence — Quran, Sunnah, the practice of the Companions, the scholars	a sermon, a speech, or a collection of pious feelings
a test of application — extremism in Pakistan, accountability, family breakdown, poverty, Islamophobia	a history paper (that is the optional Islamic History and Culture)
a test of structure — headings, sub-headings, figures, a clear line of argument	a test of Arabic — the Arabic is a bonus, never a requirement

Think of every answer as a small case with three parts: what Islam teaches (the concept), why it is true and binding (the evidence), and what difference it makes (the impact and application). Almost every question set between 2015 and 2026 asks for all three, even when its words ask for only one.

0.2 Islam in one picture: Iman, Islam and Ihsan

The best map of the whole religion was drawn by the Prophet ﷺ himself. In the famous Hadith of Jibril, the angel came in human form and asked him about Islam, Iman and Ihsan. His three answers are the three floors of the religion — and, as the figure shows, they are also the backbone of this syllabus.

Figure 2 • Al-Din in one picture: the three levels taught in the Hadith of Jibril, and the topics of these notes that carry them.

✦ HADITH

الإِسْلَامُ أَنْ تَشْهَدَ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَأَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ، وَتُقِيمَ الصَّلَاةَ، وَتُؤْتِيَ الزَّكَاةَ، وَتَصُومَ رَمَضَانَ، وَتَحُجَّ الْبَيْتَ إِنْ اسْتَطَعْتَ إِلَيْهِ سَبِيلًا

"Islam is that you testify that there is no god but Allah and that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah, that you establish prayer, pay Zakat, fast in Ramadan, and perform Hajj to the House if you are able to find a way to it." (Muslim)

→ The five pillars — the practical floor of the religion (T2).

✦ HADITH

أَنْ تُؤْمِنَ بِاللَّهِ وَمَلَائِكَتِهِ وَكُتُبِهِ وَرُسُلِهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ، وَتُؤْمِنَ بِالْقَدَرِ خَيْرِهِ وَشَرِّهِ

"[Iman is] that you believe in Allah, His angels, His Books, His Messengers and the Last Day, and that you believe in destiny, its good and its bad." (Muslim)

→ The six articles of faith — the foundation on which the whole building stands (T1).

✦ HADITH

أَنْ تَعْبُدَ اللَّهَ كَأَنَّكَ تَرَاهُ، فَإِنْ لَمْ تَكُنْ تَرَاهُ فَإِنَّهُ يَرَاكَ

"[Ihsan is] that you worship Allah as though you see Him; and though you do not see Him, He surely sees you." (Muslim)

→ Ihsan — the inner excellence that becomes self-purification (Tazkiyah) and noble character (T5, and asked in 2018).

REMEMBER • THE ONE-LINE DEFINITION OF ISLAM

Islam is complete submission to the will of Allah, as revealed in the Quran and shown in the life of the Prophet ﷺ — a Din that joins belief, worship, morality, law and society into one system.

Literal meaning: from the root s-l-m — submission, and also peace (salam) and safety.

0.3 The two sources — and how to quote them

The Quran

- The Word of Allah, revealed to the Prophet ﷺ through the angel Jibril over about 23 years (610–632 CE): about thirteen years in Makkah and ten in Madinah.
- 114 surahs (chapters) and about 6,236 ayat (verses) in the common count; the longest surah is Al-Baqarah, the shortest Al-Kawthar.
- Compiled into one written copy under Hazrat Abu Bakr (RA) by a committee led by Hazrat Zaid bin Thabit (RA); standard copies were sent to the provinces under Hazrat Uthman (RA).
- Makki surahs build belief (Tawhid, Risalat, Akhirah); Madani surahs build society (law, family, economy, state, war and peace). This one fact helps you pick verses: beliefs → Makki; systems → Madani.

The Sunnah and the Hadith

- Sunnah is the way of the Prophet ﷺ — his sayings (qawli), his actions (fi'li) and his silent approvals (taqriri). Hadith is the report that carries it.
- The six major collections, the Sihah Sittah: Sahih Al-Bukhari, Sahih Muslim, Sunan Abu Dawud, Jami' Al-Tirmidhi, Sunan Al-Nasa'i and Sunan Ibn Majah. Bukhari and Muslim together are called the Sahihayn.
- Grades: Sahih (sound), Hasan (good) and Da'if (weak). A sound hadith needs five conditions: a connected chain, upright narrators, precise narrators, no hidden defect and no contradiction of stronger evidence (asked as an MCQ in 2026).

How the references are written in these notes — and in your paper

Source	Write it like this	Why
A Quranic verse	(Al-Hujurat, Quran)	The surah's name is enough in an exam; examiners do not deduct for a missing verse number, but they do for a wrong one.
A hadith	(Al-Bukhari) • (Muslim) • (Al-Bukhari and Muslim) • (Abu Dawud) • (Al-Tirmidhi)	The collection shows you know where it comes from.
A Companion's saying	— Hazrat Umar (RA)	The name is the reference.
A scholar	— Imam Ghazali, Ihya Ulum al-Din	Name, and the book if you know it.

TRAP • NEVER WRITE A VERSE OR HADITH YOU ARE NOT SURE OF

A misquoted verse is worse than no verse. If you are unsure of the Arabic, write the English meaning in quotation marks with the surah's name. If you are unsure of the English, paraphrase it: 'The Quran declares that the most honoured of people in the sight of Allah is the most righteous (Al-Hujurat, Quran).' That still earns the evidence mark.

Popular sayings that are weak or not hadith at all — do not attribute them to the Prophet ﷺ: 'Seek knowledge even if you have to go to China' (weak); 'The ink of the scholar is holier than the blood of the martyr' (weak); 'Differences in my Ummah are a mercy' (no reliable chain); 'Love of the homeland is part of faith' (not a hadith). These notes flag such sayings wherever they tempt you.

0.4 How Islam makes law — the sources in one figure

Several questions (Sunnah 2015, Ijma 2017 and 2023, Ijtihad 2018 and 2022) and the whole of Topic 9 rest on one idea: Islamic law flows downwards from revelation. The Quran and the Sunnah are revealed; Ijma, Qiyas and Ijtihad are the methods by which qualified scholars apply revelation to new situations.

The tools in the bottom tier are used differently by each school (the Hanafis are known for Istihsan).

Figure 3 • The sources of Islamic law. The top two are revealed and binding on all; the lower tiers are derived by qualified scholars.

✦ QURAN

﴿يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا أَطِيعُوا اللَّهَ وَأَطِيعُوا الرَّسُولَ وَأُولِي الْأَمْرِ مِنْكُمْ فَإِنْ تَنَازَعْتُمْ فِي شَيْءٍ فَرُدُّوهُ إِلَى اللَّهِ وَالرَّسُولِ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ تُؤْمِنُونَ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ ذَلِكَ خَيْرٌ وَأَحْسَنُ تَأْوِيلًا﴾

"O you who have believed, obey Allah and obey the Messenger and those in authority among you. And if you disagree over anything, refer it to Allah and the Messenger, if you should believe in Allah and the Last Day. That is the best [way] and best in result." (An-Nisa, Quran)

→ The ladder of authority in one verse: obey Allah (the Quran), obey the Messenger (the Sunnah), and those in authority; and refer disputes back to Allah and the Messenger — the root of Ijtihad and the principle behind Article 227 of the Constitution of Pakistan.

0.5 The words you must know before anything else

These words appear on almost every page of every topic. Learn the English meaning of each; learn the Arabic spelling of the starred ones (★), because examiners notice a correctly written key term. Each Knowledge Base repeats and deepens them.

Belief (T1)

Term	Arabic	Meaning
Din ★	دِين	A complete way of life: belief, worship, morality, law and social order together; wider than 'religion'.
Islam ★	إِسْلَام	Submission to Allah; from s-l-m — also peace and safety.
Iman ★	إِيمَان	Faith: belief in the heart, declaration by the tongue, confirmation by deeds.
Ihsan ★	إِحْسَان	Excellence: worshipping Allah as though you see Him.
Tawhid ★	تَوْحِيد	The Oneness of Allah — in lordship, in worship, and in names and attributes.
Shirk	شِرْك	Associating partners with Allah; the Quran calls it the greatest injustice (Luqman).
Risalah / Nubuwwah ★	رِسَالَة / نُبُوَّة	Messengership / Prophethood: Allah's guidance sent through chosen human beings.
Khatm al-Nubuwwah ★	خَتْمُ النُّبُوَّة	The Finality of Prophethood: Muhammad ﷺ is the last Prophet (Al-Ahzab).
Akhirah ★	آخِرَة	The Hereafter: resurrection, judgement, reward and punishment.
Wahi ★	وَحْي	Revelation: Allah's communication to His Prophets; literally a swift, hidden message.
Qadr	قَدَر	Divine decree: Allah's knowledge and plan of all things.

Worship (T2)

Term	Arabic	Meaning

0.6 The whole syllabus in twenty minutes

Read these nine short stories once, in order. They are the whole paper in miniature; each becomes a topic of these notes.

Topic 1 • Introduction to Islam and the Islamic Beliefs

Islam is not one department of life called 'religion'; it is Din — a complete way of life. It rests on belief: Tawhid (Allah is One), Risalat (He guides mankind through Prophets, ending with Muhammad ﷺ — the Finality of Prophethood), and Akhirah (every soul will answer for its deeds). Human reason and experience are valuable but limited; Wahi (revelation) is the only certain guide. These beliefs change the individual (dignity, courage, responsibility) and society (equality, justice, unity). The examiner asks this topic almost every year.

Topic 2 • Islamic Worships (Ibadat) and Their Impact

Belief becomes practice through the five pillars. Salah builds discipline and brotherhood five times a day; Zakat purifies wealth and circulates it to eight categories of the needy; Sawm trains taqwa; Hajj gathers the Ummah in equality. Every act of worship has a spiritual, moral and social impact — the three words the examiner uses again and again. Some duties are individual (Fard Ayn), others collective (Fard Kifayah): medicine, defence, research, even clean government.

Topic 3 • The Sirah of the Prophet ﷺ as Role Model

The Prophet ﷺ is the Uswah Hasanah — the perfect model. As an individual: truthful (al-Amin), humble, merciful. As an educator: he turned an unlettered people into teachers of the world. As a diplomat: letters to kings, treaties, delegations. As a military strategist: Badr, Uhud, the Trench, Makkah — won with the fewest lives in history. As a peace maker: the Charter of Madinah, Hudaibiyyah, the general pardon at Makkah. This is the most-asked topic of the paper.

Topic 4 • Human Rights, Human Dignity, Women and the Family

Fourteen centuries before the UDHR, Islam declared that all human beings are honoured and equal, and the Farewell Sermon proclaimed the sanctity of life, property and honour. Women were given the right to life, education, property, mahr, maintenance, inheritance, consent in marriage and respect as mothers, wives and daughters. The family is the first school of society. The examiner asks this topic almost every year — often against feminism or the UDHR.

Topic 5 • Islamic Civilization and Culture

Civilization is the outward form of a people's inner beliefs. Islamic civilization stands on eight pillars named in the syllabus: Tawhid, self-purification, dignity of man, equality, social justice, moral values, tolerance and the rule of law. Its heart is Tazkiyah — the purification of the soul — which the examiner has asked three times, and Sufism, which carried Islam to South Asia.

Topic 6 • Islam and the World: the West, the Ummah and Pakistan

Islamic civilization lit the West — Cordoba, Baghdad, algebra, optics, medicine — and the modern West now shapes Muslim societies. The Ummah faces contemporary challenges: disunity, poverty, illiteracy, dependence, Islamophobia and the oppression of Muslims in Kashmir, Palestine and elsewhere. Pakistan itself was built on the Two-Nation Theory; the task now is to rebuild Pakistani society on Islamic teachings.

Topic 7 • Extremism, Terrorism, Sectarianism and Jihad

Extremism (ghuluw) is a betrayal of Islam, which is the religion of the middle way. Terrorism, sectarianism and takfir have political, economic, educational and foreign causes. Jihad is a noble, disciplined striving — with the self, the pen and, only under a lawful state and strict rules, the sword; it is the opposite of Fasad. Pakistan's answer is the Paigham-e-Pakistan consensus. Asked six times in twelve years.

Topic 8 • Public Administration and Governance in Islam

In Islam, power is an amanah (trust) and government is service. The Quran lays down justice, consultation (Shura), merit and accountability. The Rightly-Guided Caliphs were chosen by consultation and allegiance, lived like ordinary citizens, and answered to the people; Hazrat Umar's and Hazrat Ali's letters to their governors are still manuals of administration. Civil servants are trustees; Hisbah keeps them honest.

Topic 9 • The Islamic Code of Life: Sources of Law and the Islamic Systems

Islam is a complete code of life: a social system (family, rights, morality), a political system (sovereignty of Allah, Shura, justice), an economic system (Zakat, no riba, no hoarding, fair trade), a judicial system (independent judges, equality before law) and an administrative system (merit, trust, accountability). The law comes from the Quran and Sunnah, and grows through Ijma, Qiyas and Ijtihad — which is how Islam answers new questions.

0.7 The time-line behind the paper

Islamic Studies is not a history paper, but its evidence comes from history: the Prophet's life, the Rightly-Guided Caliphs, the great age of Muslim learning, and Pakistan. Place every example on this line.

Not to scale. The Prophet's life (570–632) and the Rashidun (632–661) carry most of the paper; the Pakistan end carries the 'application' questions.

Figure 4 • The time-line behind the paper: the events and eras that supply most of the examples in these notes.

Date	Event	Used in
610	First revelation in the Cave of Hira (Al-Alaq)	T1 (Wahi), T3 (educator)
622	Hijrah; brotherhood (Mu'akhat); Charter of Madinah	T3, T4, T6, T8
624 • 2 AH	Battle of Badr: 313 against about 1,000	T3 (strategist)
625 • 3 AH	Battle of Uhud: the lesson of discipline	T3
627 • 5 AH	Battle of the Trench (Ahzab): the trench strategy	T3
628 • 6 AH	Treaty of Hudaibiyyah — the 'clear victory'; letters to kings follow	T3 (peace, diplomat)

Date	Event	Used in
630 • 8 AH	Conquest of Makkah; the general amnesty	T3, T5 (tolerance)
632 • 10 AH	The Farewell Sermon ; the Prophet's death	T4 (human rights)
632–661	Khilafat-e-Rashidah: Abu Bakr, Umar, Uthman, Ali (RA)	T8, T9
c. 750–1258	The Abbasid age; Bayt al-Hikmah; the four Imams and the six hadith collections	T5, T6, T9
1947	Pakistan, on the Two-Nation Theory	T6
1949 • 1973	Objectives Resolution; Constitution (Articles 2, 2A, 31, 38, 227)	T6, T8, T9
2018	Paigham-e-Pakistan: national consensus against extremism	T7

0.8 Names and honorifics

Use the honorifics consistently. They are a mark of respect and examiners notice them.

For	Write	Meaning
The Prophet Muhammad	ﷺ or (PBUH)	Sallallahu alaihi wa sallam — may Allah bless him and grant him peace.
Other Prophets and angels	(AS)	Alaihis salam — peace be upon him.
A Companion	(RA)	Radiyallahu anhu / anha — may Allah be pleased with him / her.
A great scholar of the past	(RH)	Rahimahullah — may Allah have mercy on him.
Allah	Allah Almighty • (SWT)	Subhanahu wa ta'ala — Glorified and Exalted is He.

0.9 Six habits of mind for an Islamic Studies paper

- 1. Answer the question, not the topic. 'Impact on the individual and society' needs two headed sections, not an essay on Tawhid.
- 2. Prove, don't preach. Every claim needs evidence: a verse, a hadith, an example from the Sirah or the Caliphs, a scholar.
- 3. Think in systems. Islam is Din: every belief has a social result, every worship a moral result, every law a purpose (maqasid).
- 4. Bring it to today. The examiner is a Pakistani officer of the state. Link every answer to a present problem — and where natural, to Pakistan.
- 5. Be balanced. Admit the problem honestly (Muslims deny daughters their inheritance; extremists misuse Jihad), then answer it from the sources.
- 6. Show it. A figure — a flowchart, a table, a cycle — shows understanding at a glance and breaks a wall of text.

Part One — The Paper Itself

1.1 Where Islamic Studies sits in CSS

The CSS written examination has six compulsory papers of 100 marks each and optional papers worth 600 marks. Islamic Studies is one of the six compulsory papers. Non-Muslim candidates take Comparative Study of Major Religions in its place.

Compulsory paper	Marks	Why it matters here
English Essay	100	The biggest killer. Your Islamiyat answers train the same skill: an argued, headed, evidenced essay.
English (Precis and Composition)	100	Second biggest killer.
General Science and Ability	100
Current Affairs	100	Shares material with T6 and T7 (Muslim world, extremism, Islamophobia).
Pakistan Affairs	100	Shares material with T6 (Two-Nation Theory, Objectives Resolution, Constitution).
Islamic Studies (or Comparative Study of Major Religions)	100	Pass mark 40. Often the third-largest cause of failure.

- Pass mark: at least 40 in each compulsory paper (and 33 in each optional); the whole written part also needs an aggregate of 50%. One failed compulsory paper fails the whole attempt — however well you did elsewhere.
- Language: the paper is printed in English and Urdu. FPSC has allowed Islamic Studies to be answered in English or Urdu; confirm the instruction in the notice of your year. These notes are written in English.
- Why it is failed: not for lack of faith, but for answers that are general (a sermon), unproved (no verse, no hadith, or wrong ones), unstructured (no headings) and irrelevant (the question's words ignored). Part Five of this document is the cure.

EXAMINER'S EYE • THE PAPER EVERYONE THINKS IS EASY

Because every candidate studied Islamiyat at school, most prepare it last and least. The examiner therefore reads hundreds of near-identical answers — the same five points, no headings, no references. An answer that is simply organised and properly evidenced stands out at once, and that is the whole strategy of these notes.

NOTE • THE URDU SYLLABUS

FPSC prints the same syllabus in Urdu (Nisab: Mutala-e-Islam / Ma'arif-e-Islami). Two Urdu phrases make the intention clearer than the English: the Prophet ﷺ is studied as Mu'allim-e-Insaniyat (teacher of humanity) and Paighambar-e-Aman (Prophet of peace); and the civilization head speaks of the role of civilization in building (ta'mir) society and the human personality.

1.3 The reading list — which books actually help

FPSC attaches a reading list of seventeen required and five recommended books. You do not need to read them all; you need to know what each is good for, so that a quotation or an idea can be traced to a respected source. The list is also a guide to the examiner's mind: it tells you which authors the paper-setters regard as standard.

1.4 How the paper is built

Part I — the objective questions (MCQs)

- 20 MCQs, 1 mark each, 20 marks. Printed as Q. No. 1, attempted on the separate MCQ answer sheet, collected after 30 minutes.
- Attempt every item: an unanswered MCQ is a certain zero.
- The MCQs are overwhelmingly factual — Sirah, Quran, Companions — and quite unlike the descriptive part. They need a separate drill (section 3.8 and the One-Liner Bank).

Part II — the descriptive questions

- Seven questions (Q. 2 to Q. 8); attempt any four; 20 marks each; 80 marks. Two and a half hours.
- The last question (Q. 8) is sometimes two short notes of 10 marks each (2021, 2023, 2024).
- Instructions printed on the paper each year: attempt only four questions; all parts of a question at one place; write the question number as in the paper; no page or space left blank between answers; extra attempts are not marked.

The 2015 exception

The 2015 paper followed the older pattern: eight descriptive questions of 16 marks each, of which five were attempted. From 2016 onwards the paper has been seven questions of 20 marks, attempt four. These notes are written for the present pattern; the 2015 questions are included in every count because the examiner repeats their themes.

1.5 The marks and the minutes

180 minutes: the MCQ sheet is collected after 30 minutes; the four answers share the remaining 150

Stage	Minutes	What you do
Part I (MCQs)	30	Answer all 20. Do not return to them — the sheet is taken away.
Choose and plan	10	Read all seven questions; tick four; for each, draw the answer map (mind map) in the margin or on the first page.
Each answer (×4)	33	About 1,300–1,800 words of your handwriting: 8–12 headings, 6–10 pieces of evidence, one or two figures.
Final check	8	Numbering, headings underlined, references correct, no blank pages.

TRAP • THE FIFTH ANSWER THAT NEVER HAPPENS

Candidates spend fifty minutes on their favourite question and write the fourth in fifteen. Four equal answers of 13/20 (52) beat three brilliant ones and a stub (16 + 16 + 16 + 4 = 52) — and are far safer. Watch the clock at 73, 106, 139 and 172 minutes.

1.6 Why candidates fail — and how to be in the other group

The failing script	The passing script	The high-scoring script
Starts with a paragraph of praise; no definition	Defines the key term	Opens with a verse, defines the term literally and technically, states a thesis
One long essay, no headings	Headings, but generic (Introduction, Importance, Conclusion)	Headings taken from the question's own words , with numbered sub-headings to four levels
No references, or a wrong verse	Two or three verses, some without references	Evidence inside every heading: verse → hadith → Companion → scholar → example
Answers half the question	Answers every part, unevenly	Answers every part in proportion, and signals each part clearly
No figure	One table	An answer map + a flowchart/table/cycle that carries an argument
Nothing about today	A line on 'modern times'	A contemporary/Pakistan section : the problem, the data, the Constitution, the solution
Ends mid-sentence	Short conclusion	Conclusion that answers the question, recommends, and closes with a verse or hadith

1.7 The twelve papers at a glance

Each row is one year; each cell shows the topic of the question and its family. Read across a year to feel the examiner's balance; read down a column to see that no year leaves out Topics 3, 4 and 7 for long.

Part Two — Nine Topics: Rebuilding the Syllabus

2.1 Why nine topics — and why these nine

The seven syllabus heads are very uneven. Head I holds six lines, including two different worlds (beliefs and worships). Head II holds five roles of the Prophet ﷺ, and is the most-asked area of the paper. Head V mixes the West, the modern world, the Ummah and extremism. Head VI holds eight lines. Head VII holds five systems and the sources of law. A topic should be one thing you can master in one to two weeks, and its weight should match the examiner's interest. Four decisions follow:

1. Head I is split in two — Beliefs (T1, asked 10 times) and Worships (T2, asked 6 times) — because a belief question and a worship question are answered in completely different ways.
2. Head V is split in two — Islam and the World (T6) and Extremism, Terrorism, Sectarianism and Jihad (T7) — because 'extremism in Pakistan' is the single most repeated family of the whole paper (six times), and Jihad (twice) belongs with it.
3. 'Sources of Islamic Law' moves from Head VI to T9, so that the Quran, Sunnah, Ijma, Qiyas and Ijtihad are taught together with 'the procedure of Ijma and Ijtihad' (Head VII). Governance (T8) keeps Shura and legislation.
4. The family goes into T4 with women and human rights, because the examiner asks about it in that frame (2015, 2026).

2.3 The contemporary layer — the hot topics each topic carries

The examiner of 2024–2026 wants Islam applied to the present. Every Knowledge Base therefore ends its teaching with a chapter of Contemporary Challenges, Narratives and Hot Debates, and the Prediction Papers draw on them. This is the list the notes will cover.

Topic	Contemporary challenges, narratives and debates
T1	Atheism and 'new atheism' among the youth · science and religion · secularism and the 'religion is private' narrative · the Finality of Prophethood and its constitutional protection (Article 260(3)) · the meaning crisis, anxiety and depression

HOT DEBATE · HOW TO HANDLE A SENSITIVE ISSUE

State the issue factually → give the Quranic principle → give the Prophetic practice → give the agreed scholarly position → apply it to Pakistan → recommend. Never insult a group, a sect, a movement or a country; criticise ideas, not people. This method is used for every hot debate in the Knowledge Bases.

2.4 The two documents each topic gets

The Knowledge Base (TnKB)

1. How to use this document and the contents space.
2. Part Zero — the ABC: the key terms of the topic in Arabic and English; the background you need.
3. Part One — the chapters: one chapter for every syllabus line and every past-paper family, built from the question words, four to five heading levels deep, with evidence cards inside every point and 8–15 figures.
4. Part Two — Contemporary Challenges, Narratives and Hot Debates of the topic.
5. Part Three — The examiner's record of the topic, and five likely questions (not solved; the Prediction Papers solve predicted questions).
6. Part Four — the One-Liner Bank: short facts for MCQs and quick recall.
7. Part Five — the Revision Sheet: the whole topic on a few pages.

The Question Answers (TnQA)

1. The question exactly as set, with year and number.
2. The answer map — a mind map whose every branch is one heading of the answer.
3. Decoding the question — what the command words and each limb demand.
4. The model answer — introduction with evidence; numbered headings (1), (2)... from the question's words; sub-headings (i), (ii)... and (a), (b)...; evidence inside every heading; one or two figures; the contemporary/Pakistan angle; conclusion with a verse or hadith.
5. Why this answer scores — what the examiner rewards in it.

2.5 The compiled volumes — and the Prediction Papers

When all nine topics are complete, five volumes are compiled from them (Figure 1). Two deserve a word now:

- The Evidence Bank (EB) is compiled automatically from every verse, hadith and scholarly view used in the nine KBs and QAs — arranged topic → sub-topic → heading, each with its Arabic, translation, reference and the point it proves. Because it is compiled, not re-typed, it is exactly what you have read in the topics.

- The Prediction Papers (PR) are three complete papers, set exactly as FPSC prints the Islamic Studies paper: the FPSC heading, roll-number box, time and marks, the printed instructions, Part I with 20 MCQs (options A–D) and Part II with seven questions (Q. 2 to Q. 8, attempt four, 20 marks each, one question of two short notes). Each set is followed by the MCQ key and full model answers. Together they add 21 predicted descriptive questions drawn from the blind spots, the repeat engine and the contemporary layer.

Part Three — The Record: What Has Been Asked, 2015–2026

3.1 How the record was built

- Descriptive part: 85 questions from twelve papers (2015: eight; 2016–2026: seven each). The short-note options of 2021 (Treaty of Hudaibiyyah as a pact of peace; benefits of the Battle of Khaybar) and 2023 (human rights in the Farewell Sermon; social justice in an Islamic society) were recovered and added. The two parts of the 2024 short-notes question could not be recovered from any accessible archive; it is counted as a question but left out of the topic totals (84 tagged questions).
- Objective part: 223 MCQs recovered (full sets for ten years; ten items for 2016 and thirteen for 2020).
- Each descriptive question was tagged with its topic, its family (the recurring theme it belongs to), any second topic it leaks into, and its command words.

Figure 7 • The heat map: how many questions each topic received in each year, 2015–2026. Darker = more questions; Σ = total.

How to read it

- No topic is safe to leave. Every topic has been asked at least six times in twelve years; seven of the nine topics were asked in 2026 alone.
- T3 (Sirah) and T4 (Rights and women) are the pillars — asked in almost every year, often twice.
- T1 (Beliefs) comes back every year or two, usually with the words 'impact on individual and society'.
- T2 (Worships) went quiet after 2019 — and then returned in 2025 with a new angle (Fard Kifayah). A worship question is overdue; Sawm has never been asked.
- T6 and T7 have grown: the paper is moving towards the present day.

3.3 How much each topic weighs

Topic	Asked	Share	Verdict
T1 · Intro to Islam & Beliefs	10	12%	Core. Expect one question most years.
T2 · Worships	6	7%	Lower frequency; overdue; one worship with 'impacts'.
T3 · Sirah as Role Model	13	15%	The heaviest. Expect one, often two.
T4 · Human Rights & Women	12	14%	Heavy. Expect one, often two.
T5 · Civilization & Culture	9	11%	Steady. Self-purification is a favourite.
T6 · Islam & the World	9	11%	Rising. Contemporary, Pakistan-centred.
T7 · Extremism & Jihad	8	10%	The most repeated family. Expect it.
T8 · Governance & Admin	9	11%	Steady. Accountability three times since 2021.
T9 · Code of Life & Sources	8	10%	Steady. Ijma/Ijtihad and economics alternate.

3.4 The repeat engine

The examiner does not invent a new paper every year. He or she returns to families of questions, changing the angle. Learn the families, and you have prepared for most of the next paper.

Exact and near repeats

Some questions have come back word for word or nearly so. These are the questions you must be able to write in your sleep.

First asked	Repeated	The question
2022 Q5	2024 Q4 (exact)	Explain the doctrine of Prophethood and its importance in human life.

First asked	Repeated	The question
2020 Q6	2023 Q6 (near)	Analyze the Charter of Madinah / Madina Accord as a social contract.
2017 Q8	2023 Q5 (near + new limb)	Define Ijma and explain its kinds ... (2023 adds: can parliament's legislation be Ijma?)
2016 Q3	2022 Q8 (near)	The difference between Din and religion; the importance of Din in human life.
2017 Q7	2018 Q4 · 2023 Q7 · 2024 Q7	Motives/reasons of extremism (or terrorism) in Pakistan and how to get rid of it.

2021 Q6	2024 Q6 · 2026 Q6	Accountability of rulers / in Pakistan / under the Rashidun.

EXAMINER'S EYE · THE REPEAT WITH A TWIST

When a family returns, one new limb is usually added: 2023's Ijma question adds parliament; 2024's accountability question adds Pakistan; 2026's accountability question adds the Rashidun as 'the highest standard'. A memorised answer loses marks on exactly that limb. Prepare the family, then read the twist and give it its own heading.

3.5 The leaks between topics

Many questions draw on two topics at once. Knowing the leaks lets you borrow evidence across topics — and warns you not to prepare topics in isolation.

2026 Q6	T8	T9	economic system, sources of law
2026 Q7	T7	T6	Pakistan, Ummah, West

3.6 The blind spots — syllabus lines never asked, 2015–2026

These syllabus lines have never been the direct subject of a descriptive question in twelve years. An examiner who wants a 'fresh' question will look here first.

Topic	Blind spot (never asked directly)	Risk
T1	Distinctive aspects of Islam · the concept of Islam as such · belief in Angels, Books and Qadr	High
T2	Sawm (fasting) — never asked · Hajj asked once · Salah once since 2016	High
T3	The Prophet ﷺ as Educator (the 2026 MCQ called 'teacher' his most highlighted status) · as Diplomat (letters to rulers, delegations) · as Individual	Very high
T4	Rights of non-Muslims in an Islamic state · rights of children, the elderly, labour · the dignity of men (the syllabus says 'men and women')	High
T5	Role of civilization in the development of human personality and community · rule of law · meaning and vital elements (only partly, 2016)	High
T6	Impact of Islamic civilization on the West (only the reverse asked, 2026) · the role of Islam in the modern world	Very high
T7	Rise of extremism in the Muslim world generally · Paigham-e-Pakistan as a model	Medium
T8	Letters of Hazrat Umar and Hazrat Ali (a named syllabus line!) · Quranic guidance on good governance · Shura and legislation	Very high
T9	Social, judicial and administrative systems · Qiyas · Maqasid al-Shariah	High

3.7 Beyond the syllabus — what the examiner asked that the syllabus never names

- Two-Nation Theory and the plight of Indian and Kashmiri Muslims (2026) — a Pakistan Affairs theme in an Islamiyat paper.
- Fard Kifayah and its modern scope (2025).
- Sufism and its role in spreading Islam (2021).
- Islamophobia (2021), feminism (2019), the UDHR (2026) — contemporary Western frames.
- Hazrat Ali's bravery and juridical wisdom (2020) — a personality question.
- Classist lifestyle (2025), sectarianism and polarisation (2026), reform of Pakistani politics (2019), reconstruction of Pakistani society (2022).

The lesson: the syllabus is a floor, not a ceiling. The examiner feels free to ask anything that applies Islam to the life of a Muslim and a Pakistani. The contemporary chapters of the Knowledge Bases are built for exactly this.

3.8 The objective paper, 2015–2026

What the MCQs teach

- The MCQs are a different paper. The descriptive part tests concepts; the objective part tests facts — above all the Sirah (28%) and the Quran (18%).
- They repeat. At least twenty facts have been asked two or three times (below). Learn the repeats first.
- They are moving towards concepts since 2026 (the basis of honour, the condition of polygamy, the status of the Prophet most highlighted, the type of equality in the Farewell Sermon) — which rewards reading the Knowledge Bases.

EXAMINER'S EYE • THE DIRECTION OF TRAVEL

The paper has moved from 'What does Islam say?' to 'How does what Islam says solve this problem now?' Every answer you write should therefore end its body with an applied section — and many should be built around it.

3.12 Where the next paper could come from

Combine the three forces — the repeat engine, the blind spots and the contemporary layer — and the next paper becomes predictable in outline, if not in wording.

Tier 1 — prepare to full-answer depth from every angle

1. Extremism / terrorism / sectarianism — causes and cures, in Pakistan and the Muslim world (T7). Asked six times.
2. Women's rights / human rights / human dignity — against feminism, the UDHR or Pakistani practice (T4).
3. The Prophet ﷺ as peace maker / military strategist — and the untouched Educator and Diplomat (T3).
4. Prophethood and its finality; Tawhid; Akhirah; Din vs religion (T1).
5. Accountability and the conduct of the Rashidun; civil servants; letters of Umar and Ali (T8).
6. Self-purification / Ihsan / moral values (T5).

Tier 2 — prepare to a full plan and a strong short answer

1. Worships — especially Sawm (never asked) and Zakat against poverty (T2).
2. Ijma / Ijtihad / Sunnah; the Islamic economic system; riba (T9).
3. Islam and the West — both directions of impact; Islamophobia; Muslim Ummah and its revival (T6).
4. The family in the present era (T4).

Tier 3 — the blind spots most likely to be broken

- The Prophet ﷺ as Educator / teacher of humanity.
- Letters of Hazrat Umar and Hazrat Ali to their governors, and their lessons for Pakistan's civil servants.
- Impact of Islamic civilization on the West.
- Rights of non-Muslims / minorities in an Islamic state.
- Distinctive features of Islam.
- Quranic guidance on good governance; Shura.
- The judicial system of Islam and the rule of law.
- Role of civilization in building the human personality and community.

Part Four — The Nine Topic Dossiers

Each dossier is the brief for one topic. Read it before you open that topic's Knowledge Base, and again when you revise it. It tells you what the syllabus says, what the examiner has asked, what the record reveals, what the contemporary layer holds, what has never been asked, and the few pieces of evidence that carry the whole topic.

2026 Q5	What are the rational arguments for the existence of Allah? Explain the impacts of the belief in monotheism on human life.

What the record reveals

- Asked ten times — the third-heaviest topic, and asked in 2022, 2023, 2024 and 2026 running.
- Prophethood is the favourite belief: finality (2015), doctrine and importance (2022, repeated word for word in 2024).
- 'Impact on individual and society' is attached to almost every belief question (Tawhid 2019, Akhirah 2021 and 2023, monotheism 2026). Prepare every belief with two impact lists ready.
- Din vs religion returned after six years (2016 → 2022) with the same two limbs.
- 2026 asked for rational arguments for the existence of Allah — a sign that the examiner wants reasoning, not only scripture.

The contemporary layer

- Atheism, scepticism and 'new atheism' among educated youth — the rational and Quranic answer

- Science and religion: conflict or harmony? The Quran's invitation to observe (tafakkur)
- Secularism and the narrative that 'religion is a private matter' — the answer of Din

★ QURAN

﴿إِنَّ الدِّينَ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ الْإِسْلَامُ وَمَا اخْتَلَفَ الَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْكِتَابَ إِلَّا مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا جَاءَهُمُ الْعِلْمُ بَغْيًا بَيْنَهُمْ وَمَنْ يَكْفُرْ بِآيَاتِ اللَّهِ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ سَرِيعُ الْحِسَابِ﴾

"Indeed, the religion in the sight of Allah is Islam. And those who were given the Scripture did not differ except after knowledge had come to them - out of jealous animosity between themselves. And whoever disbelieves in the verses of Allah, then indeed, Allah is swift in [taking] account." (Aal-e-Imran, Quran)

→ Islam is the Din — the whole way of life — accepted by Allah: the key verse for the concept of Islam and for Din vs religion.

★ QURAN

﴿قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ ۝ اللَّهُ الصَّمَدُ ۝ لَمْ يَلِدْ وَلَمْ يُولَدْ ۝ وَلَمْ يَكُنْ لَهُ كُفُوًا أَحَدٌ﴾

"Say, 'He is Allah, [who is] One. Allah, the Eternal Refuge. He neither begets nor is born. Nor is there to Him any equivalent.'" (Al-Ikhlās, Quran)

→ Tawhid in four short verses: Allah is One, self-sufficient, unbegotten, without equal — the heart of every belief answer.

★ QURAN

﴿مَا كَانَ مُحَمَّدٌ أَبَا أَحَدٍ مِّن رِّجَالِكُمْ وَلَكِن رَّسُولَ اللَّهِ وَخَاتَمَ النَّبِيِّينَ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمًا﴾

"Muhammad is not the father of [any] one of your men, but [he is] the Messenger of Allah and last of the prophets. And ever is Allah, of all things, Knowing." (Al-Ahzab, Quran)

→ The explicit text of the Finality of Prophethood: Khatam an-Nabiyyin, the seal of the Prophets.

✦ HADITH

أَمَّا تَرْضَى أَنْ تَكُونَ مِنِّي بِمَنْزِلَةِ هَارُونَ مِنْ مُوسَى، إِلَّا أَنَّهُ لَا نَبِيَّ بَعْدِي

“Are you not pleased to be to me as Harun was to Musa — except that there is no Prophet after me?” (Al-Bukhari and Muslim)

→ Said to Hazrat Ali (RA): the Sunnah confirms the Quran — no Prophet after Muhammad ﷺ.

What the record reveals

- Zakat is the favourite — three times in four years (2015, 2017, 2018), always tied to poverty and economic stability.
- The fixed formula is 'spiritual, moral and social impact' (2016 prayer, 2018 Zakat, 2019 Hajj). Prepare each worship with these three headings.
- 2025 opened a new door: Fard Kifayah — the collective duties of the Ummah and their modern scope.
- Sawm has never been asked, and Salah only once — both are overdue.

The contemporary layer

- Worship reduced to ritual: why prayer does not always stop corruption — and what the Quran says about it
- Zakat and poverty in Pakistan: the government Zakat system, the trust deficit and private giving
- Hajj and Umrah: cost, commercialisation and the spirit of equality

"Recite, [O Muhammad], what has been revealed to you of the Book and establish prayer. Indeed, prayer prohibits immorality and wrongdoing, and the remembrance of Allah is greater. And Allah knows that which you do." (Al-Ankabut, Quran)

→ Prayer restrains from indecency and wrongdoing — the moral impact of Salah in the Quran's own words.

✦ QURAN

﴿إِنَّمَا الصَّدَقَتُ لِلْفُقَرَاءِ وَالْمَسْكِينِ وَالْعَمِلِينَ عَلَيْهَا وَالْمَوْلَاةِ قُلُوبُهُمْ وَفِي الرِّقَابِ وَالْغُرَمِينَ وَفِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَابْنِ السَّبِيلِ فَرِيضَةً مِّنَ اللَّهِ وَاللَّهُ عَلِيمٌ حَكِيمٌ﴾

"Zakah expenditures are only for the poor and for the needy and for those employed to collect [zakah] and for bringing hearts together [for Islam] and for freeing captives [or slaves] and for those in debt and for the cause of Allah and for the [stranded] traveler - an obligation [imposed] by Allah. And Allah is Knowing and Wise." (At-Tawbah, Quran)

→ The eight heads of Zakat: the Quran itself fixes who receives it — the key verse for 2017.

✦ QURAN

﴿يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا كُتِبَ عَلَيْكُمُ الصِّيَامُ كَمَا كُتِبَ عَلَى الَّذِينَ مِن قَبْلِكُمْ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَتَّقُونَ﴾

"O you who have believed, decreed upon you is fasting as it was decreed upon those before you that you may become righteous." (Al-Baqarah, Quran)

"For men is a share of what the parents and close relatives leave, and for women is a share of what the parents and close relatives leave, be it little or much - an obligatory share." (An-Nisa, Quran)

✦ QURAN

﴿إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَأْمُرُكُمْ أَنْ تُؤَدُّوا الْأَمَانَاتِ إِلَىٰ أَهْلِهَا وَإِذَا حَكَمْتُمْ بَيْنَ النَّاسِ أَنْ تَحْكُمُوا بِالْعَدْلِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ نِعِمَّا يَعِظُكُمْ بِهِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ سَمِيعًا بَصِيرًا﴾

"Indeed, Allah commands you to render trusts to whom they are due and when you judge between people to judge with justice. Excellent is that which Allah instructs you. Indeed, Allah is ever Hearing and Seeing." (An-Nisa, Quran)

→ Give trusts to those entitled to them, and judge with justice — the two foundations of Islamic administration: merit and justice.

✦ QURAN

﴿وَالَّذِينَ اسْتَجَابُوا لِرَبِّهِمْ وَأَقَامُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَأَمْرُهُمْ شُورَى بَيْنَهُمْ وَمِمَّا رَزَقْنَاهُمْ يُنْفِقُونَ﴾

“And those who have responded to their lord and established prayer and whose affair is [determined by] consultation among themselves, and from what We have provided them, they spend.” (Ash-Shura, Quran)

→ Believers settle their affairs by consultation among themselves — the basis of Shura.

✦ HADITH

كُلُّكُمْ رَاعٍ وَكُلُّكُمْ مَسْئُولٌ عَنْ رَعِيَّتِهِ

“Each of you is a shepherd, and each of you is responsible for his flock.” (Al-Bukhari and Muslim)

﴿مَا أَفَاءَ اللَّهُ عَلَى رَسُولِهِ مِنْ أَهْلِ الْقُرَى فَلِلَّهِ وَلِلرَّسُولِ وَلِذِي الْقُرْبَىٰ وَالْيَتَامَىٰ وَالْمَسْكِينِ وَابْنِ السَّبِيلِ كَيْ لَا يَكُونَ دُولَةً بَيْنَ الْأَغْنِيَاءِ مِنْكُمْ وَمَا آتَاكُمُ الرَّسُولُ فَخُذُوهُ وَمَا نَهَاكُمْ عَنْهُ فَانْتَهُوا وَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ شَدِيدُ الْعِقَابِ﴾

"And what Allah restored to His Messenger from the people of the towns - it is for Allah and for the Messenger and for [his] near relatives and orphans and the [stranded] traveler - so that it will not be a perpetual distribution among the rich from among you. And whatever the Messenger has given you - take; and what he has forbidden you - refrain from. And fear Allah; indeed, Allah is severe in penalty." (Al-Hashr, Quran)

Part Five — How an Islamic Studies Answer Scores

5.1 What the examiner is actually marking

No official marking scheme is published, but the pattern of what examiners reward is clear from the papers themselves, from the comments examiners make on scripts, and from the answers of candidates who scored well. Five things carry the marks:

What is rewarded	What it looks like on the page	Roughly
Relevance	Every limb of the question answered, in proportion, under headings that use the question's words.	25%
Evidence	Correct verses and ahadith with references, placed inside the points; Companions, scholars and examples.	25%
Structure	Answer map; introduction; numbered headings and sub-headings; conclusion.	20%
Depth and application	Analysis, not description; the contemporary and Pakistan angle; counter-views answered.	20%
Presentation	Clear English, neat Arabic, one or two figures, no crossings-out, no blank pages.	10%

EXAMINER'S EYE • THE FIRST PAGE

An examiner forms a view on the first page. An answer map, a clean opening verse with its translation and reference, a two-line definition and a clear thesis tell the examiner at once that this candidate knows what he or she is doing. Put your best work on the first page of every answer.

5.2 The nine moves of a high-scoring answer

Figure 11 • The anatomy of a high-scoring Islamic Studies answer: nine moves, in order.

Move 1 — the answer map (90 seconds)

Draw a mind map with the question in the centre and one branch for each heading you will write. It is your plan, and it shows the examiner your structure before he reads a line (section 5.3).

Move 2 — opening with evidence

Begin with the verse or hadith that sums up the answer. Arabic if you are sure, then the translation in quotation marks, then (Surah, Quran) or (Collection).

Move 3 — the introduction (4–6 sentences)

Define the key term literally and technically; place it in the Islamic scheme; state your thesis — the one sentence the whole answer will prove.

Move 4 — headings from the question words

Every limb of the question becomes a main heading, in the question's own words. Under it, sub-headings (i), (ii)... and under those (a), (b)...

Move 5 — evidence inside every heading

Each heading follows the same pattern: claim → Quran → Hadith → Companion/scholar → example → one line of explanation. Never a heading without evidence.

Move 6 — a figure

At least one per answer: a comparison table, a flowchart of causes and effects, a pyramid, a cycle. Label it and refer to it.

Move 7 — the contemporary / Pakistan angle

A section that applies the teaching to today: the problem, the data, the Constitution, the institutions, the solution.

Move 8 — the misconception or critique answered

State the objection fairly (the Western critique, the extremist misreading, the cultural practice) and answer it from the sources.

Move 9 — the conclusion

Answer the question in three or four sentences, make one or two recommendations, and close with a verse or hadith.

5.3 The answer map — the house rule

Every answer in these notes begins with an answer map, and every answer you write in the exam should begin with one. It takes ninety seconds. It forces you to decide your headings before you write, it stops you from forgetting a limb of the question, and it shows the examiner your plan.

Every box becomes a heading of the answer. Draw this in 90 seconds before you write.

Figure 12 • An answer map for CSS 2019 Q2: 'Define Tauheed. What is its impact on individual life and the society?' Every box becomes a heading.

How to build it — five steps

1. Underline the command words and the limbs of the question: Define Tauheed • impact on individual • impact on society.
2. Write the question in the centre in your own short words.
3. One branch per limb, in the order of the question, using the question's words.
4. Add the standard branches: Introduction, the concept's kinds or background, the contemporary angle, the conclusion.
5. Write two or three sub-points under each branch — and the evidence you will use (just the surah name or hadith keyword).

5.4 The introduction that earns marks

The introduction does three things in four to six sentences: it defines, it places, and it promises.

Part	What to write	Example (Tauheed, 2019)
Opening evidence	The verse or hadith that sums up the answer	Say: He is Allah, the One ... (Al-Ikhlās, Quran)
Definition	Literal meaning + technical meaning	Tauheed comes from wahhada , to make one; technically it is the belief that Allah is One in His essence, attributes, lordship and right to worship.
Place	Where it stands in Islam	It is the first article of faith, the message of every Prophet and the foundation of the whole Din.

Part	What to write	Example (Tauheed, 2019)
Thesis	The one-sentence answer to the question	Tauheed does not only change what a person believes; it remakes the individual and reorganises society on equality, justice and freedom.

TRAP • THE INTRODUCTION THAT SAYS NOTHING

'Islam is a complete code of life. It covers every aspect of life. It is the religion of peace ...' — these three sentences appear in thousands of scripts and earn nothing. Define the exact term of the question and state a thesis.

5.5 Headings that repeat the question

This is the single most important habit. The examiner is looking for the answer to his question; show it to him in the headings. The notes use a four-level heading ladder, and you should use the same ladder in the exam:

Level	Numbering	Used for	Example
1	(1), (2), (3) ...	Each limb of the question; introduction; conclusion	(4) Impact of Tauheed on the Individual
2	(i), (ii), (iii) ...	The main points under a limb	(i) Human dignity and self-respect
3	(a), (b), (c) ...	The aspects or examples of a point	(a) Freedom from bowing before any creature
4	•	Short facts, data, names	• Bilal (RA): a slave who became the Prophet's muezzin

5.6 Evidence — how to use the Quran and Hadith in the exam

THE EVIDENCE LADDER — climb down, never up: a scholar supports a verse, never replaces it

Figure 13 · The evidence ladder: the order in which evidence is used, and its weight.

The rules of evidence

- Quran first. Put the strongest verse at the head of the point.
- Arabic only if you are certain. Write it neatly, with its vowel marks if you know them, on its own line. If in doubt, write only the translation.
- Translation in quotation marks, in simple English.
- Reference in brackets: (Al-Hujurat, Quran); (Al-Bukhari).
- Then the point it proves — one sentence tying the evidence to the heading. A quotation without this sentence earns half its value.
- Quantity: a twenty-mark answer needs roughly 6–10 verses, 4–6 ahadith and 2–4 other authorities. Spread them — at least one piece of evidence under every main heading.
- Companions and history are evidence too: Hazrat Umar's dealings with his governors, the Charter of Madinah, the Conquest of Makkah.

Which scholars to quote

Group	Safe, widely respected names	Typical use
Classical imams and jurists	Imam Abu Hanifa, Imam Abu Yusuf, Imam Malik, Imam Shafi'i, Imam Ahmad bin Hanbal	Fiqh, Ijtihad, Ijma, governance (Kitab al-Kharaj)
Classical thinkers	Imam Ghazali, al-Mawardi, Ibn Khaldun, Shah Waliullah, Mujaddid Alf Thani	Tazkiyah, maqasid, governance, civilization, reform
Modern Muslim thinkers	Allama Iqbal, Quaid-e-Azam, Sir Syed, Shibli Nomani, Syed Sulaiman Nadvi, Dr Hamidullah, Muhammad Asad, Khurshid Ahmad, Umer Chapra, Dr Mahmood Ahmad Ghazi, Mufti Taqi Usmani	Sirah, constitution, Ijtihad, economics, Islam and the West
On the FPSC list	the authors in section 1.3, including Mawdudi (for the concepts his listed books explain)	Din, Khilafat, Islamic law and constitution

Group	Safe, widely respected names	Typical use
Western and neutral voices	W. Montgomery Watt, Michael Hart, Lamartine, Karen Armstrong, John Esposito, Robert Briffault, Philip Hitti, Annemarie Schimmel	Sirah, impact on the West, Islamophobia

TRAP • FAKE QUOTATIONS

Many 'quotations' in circulation are invented or wrongly attributed — to Western writers praising the Prophet ﷺ, to Hazrat Ali, to Iqbal. If you cannot trace it, paraphrase it and drop the quotation marks. These notes quote directly only when the words are well attested; otherwise they summarise the view.

5.7 Figures in an Islamic Studies answer

A figure is not decoration. It shows a relationship that text takes a paragraph to explain — and examiners notice it immediately. Aim for one or two per answer, drawn with a ruler and labelled.

Comparison table	Any 'compare', 'differentiate', 'critical analysis'	Din vs religion; Islam vs UDHR; Islamic vs capitalist vs socialist economy
Flowchart (cause → effect)	Causes and consequences; 'how can...'	Causes of extremism → effects → solutions
Tree / mind map	Kinds, branches, classifications	Kinds of Tauheed; kinds of Ijma; heads of Zakat
Pyramid / ladder	Hierarchies and sources	Sources of Islamic law; the levels of Din
Cycle	Processes that reinforce themselves	Zakat → purchasing power → trade → growth → more Zakat
Time-line	Sequences and phases	The Ghazwat; phases of terrorism in Pakistan

Twelve master figures to practise

1. Din: Iman–Islam–Ihsan (Hadith of Jibril)
2. Din vs religion comparison table
3. The three kinds of Tauheed
4. The eight heads of Zakat and the Zakat cycle
5. The spiritual–moral–social impact triangle of worship
6. The five roles of the Prophet ﷺ (the syllabus wheel)
7. The Ghazwat time-line with outcome and lesson
8. Charter of Madinah vs Hobbes–Locke–Rousseau
9. Islam vs UDHR
10. Causes → solutions of extremism flowchart
11. Sources of Islamic law pyramid
12. Islamic economic system: prohibitions, obligations, institutions

5.8 The contemporary and Pakistan angle

The examiner is a senior officer or scholar of the Pakistani state setting a paper for future officers. An answer that connects Islam to Pakistan's Constitution, institutions and problems shows that you can think like an officer. Learn this table; it fits into half the questions of the paper.

Provision / institution	What it says or does	Use in
Objectives Resolution (1949); Article 2A	Sovereignty belongs to Allah; authority is a sacred trust exercised by the people's representatives within the limits prescribed by Allah; made a substantive part of the Constitution in 1985.	T1, T8, T9
Article 2	Islam shall be the State religion of Pakistan.	T1, T6
Article 31	Islamic way of life: teaching of the Quran and Islamiyat, Arabic, proper organisation of Zakat, Ushr, Auqaf and mosques, promotion of Islamic moral standards.	T2, T5, T9
Article 37 · Article 38	Promotion of social justice and eradication of social evils; economic well-being of the people; 38(f): elimination of riba (by 1 January 2028 after the 26th Amendment, 2024).	T5, T9
Article 40	Strengthening bonds with the Muslim world and promoting international peace.	T6
Article 227	All existing laws to be brought in conformity with the Quran and Sunnah; no law repugnant to them.	T8, T9
Articles 228–230	The Council of Islamic Ideology: advises Parliament on the Islamic character of laws — a model of collective Ijtihad.	T9
Article 203C	The Federal Shariat Court: may examine whether a law is repugnant to Islam; its 2022 judgment declared the interest-based system against the Shariah.	T9
Article 260(3)	Defines 'Muslim' with reference to belief in the absolute finality of the Prophethood of Muhammad ﷺ.	T1
Zakat and Ushr system (1980)	State collection and distribution of Zakat; a subject of reform debates.	T2
National Action Plan (2014) · Paigham-e-Pakistan (2018)	The state's and the ulema's joint response to terrorism, sectarianism and hate speech.	T7

5.9 Sensitive questions — how to stay safe

- Never name a sect, a school or a living personality negatively. Criticise an idea or a practice, not a group.
- Present the agreed position of the Muslim scholars; where the schools differ, say so respectfully and give the Hanafi view as the majority view in Pakistan.
- Admit real problems honestly — denial of inheritance, extremism, corruption — and blame the practice, not the religion.
- Do not attack the West as a whole; distinguish its achievements (science, rule of law, welfare) from its problems (materialism, family breakdown, Islamophobia).
- On international conflicts (Kashmir, Palestine), state facts and principles — the right of self-determination, the sanctity of life — without abuse.

5.10 Short notes — ten marks each

When Q. 8 asks for two notes (2021, 2023, 2024), each is half an answer: about 600–800 words, 45 minutes for the pair.

1. Definition / background in three or four lines, with one verse or hadith.

2. Four to six headed points, each with a piece of evidence or a fact.
3. One small figure or table if it fits.
4. One-line conclusion.

5.11 Twelve mistakes that cost marks

1. Writing on the topic instead of the question.
2. No headings, or generic headings.
3. A wrong verse, a wrong surah, or a weak hadith presented as sound.
4. Arabic written carelessly or incorrectly.
5. Evidence listed at the end instead of inside the points.
6. One limb of the question ignored.
7. A sermon instead of an argument — feelings instead of reasons.
8. No contemporary or Pakistan angle in an applied question.
9. Attacking a sect, a personality or a country.
10. The fourth answer written in fifteen minutes.
11. Blank pages left between answers (forbidden by the printed instructions).
12. No conclusion — or a conclusion that repeats the introduction.

5.12 The objective part in thirty minutes

- Read each MCQ once; answer at once if you know it; mark and return if you do not. Do not change an answer without a clear reason.
- Most MCQs are Sirah, Quran and Companions (section 3.8): learn the One-Liner Bank of each topic, and the repeated facts first.
- Watch the options 'None of these' and 'All of the above' — several recent keys have been 'None of these'.
- Do not leave any item blank.

Part Six — The Plan

6.1 A sixteen-week plan

Figure 14 • A sixteen-week plan for Islamic Studies, alongside your other papers.

Weeks	Work	Output
1	This Master Anatomy; Part Zero twice; glossary	Can explain the nine topics and the method
2–3	T1 (Beliefs): KB reading ×2; QA	Four practice answers; evidence cards memorised
4	T2 (Worships)	Two practice answers
5–6	T3 (Sirah) — the heaviest topic	Four practice answers
7	T4 (Rights and women)	Three practice answers
8	T5 (Civilization)	Two practice answers
9	T6 (Islam and the World)	Two practice answers
10	T7 (Extremism and Jihad)	Two practice answers
11	T8 (Governance)	Two practice answers
12–13	T9 (Code of life and sources)	Three practice answers
14–15	Prediction Papers Sets 1–3 under exam conditions (3 hours each); correct against the model answers	Three full papers
16	Evidence Bank and Revision Notes; the repeat families; the blind spots	Ready

6.2 How to use each document

The Knowledge Base, in three readings

- 1. First reading — understand. Read straight through; do not memorise. Read the figures carefully.
- 2. Second reading — mark. Mark the evidence cards you will memorise (three to five per chapter) and the headings you will reuse.

3. Third reading — recall. Cover the page; reproduce the headings of each chapter and the evidence under each.

The Question Answers, in three passes

1. Pass one — study the build: the answer map, the decoding, the headings.
2. Pass two — write it yourself, closed book, in 33 minutes, from the answer map only.
3. Pass three — compare your answer with the model: which heading did you miss, which evidence did you forget?

6.3 Memorising the verses and ahadith

1. Three verses and two ahadith a day from the Evidence Bank (or the evidence cards of the topic you are reading).
2. Learn the meaning first, then the Arabic. Say the translation aloud; then read the Arabic three times; then write it once from memory.
3. Learn each piece with its 'point' — the sentence after the arrow. A verse you cannot use is a verse you have not learnt.
4. Revise on a 1-3-7 rhythm: the next day, three days later, a week later.
5. Build a personal list of about 60 verses and 40 ahadith that you can write with certainty. That is enough for any paper.

REMEMBER • QUALITY OVER QUANTITY

Ten verses you can write correctly and use precisely are worth more than a hundred you half-remember.
One misquoted verse can cost more than it earns.

6.4 The last fortnight

- Re-read Part Three of this document: the repeat engine, the blind spots and the tiers.
- Write one full timed paper every third day (the three Prediction Papers).
- Revise from the Revision Notes and the Evidence Bank only — no new material.
- For each Tier 1 family, rehearse the answer map from memory.

6.5 The day of the paper

1. Part I: 30 minutes, every MCQ answered.
2. Read all seven questions; choose four you can answer fully in every limb — not the four you like most.
3. Draw the four answer maps first (10 minutes). If a map does not fill, change the question now, not after 20 minutes of writing.
4. Write in the order of your confidence: best answer first.
5. Keep to 33 minutes per answer. At the limit, write the conclusion and move on.
6. Last 8 minutes: check numbering, headings and references; cross any blank page.

6.6 After the nine topics

When the nine topics are finished, the five compiled volumes — the Evidence Bank, the Question Answers print volume, the One-Liner and MCQ Bank, the Revision Notes and the Prediction Papers — become your working set for the final month. This Master Anatomy stays at the front of the file.
