How to revise with it

1. Cover the bold. Read the line, say the answer, then uncover it. Tick the lines you get right.
2. Revise in blocks of twenty. Return to the lines you missed the next day, then after a week.
3. Learn the tables whole — the Ghazwat, the Caliphs, the hadith collections and the four Imams answer many MCQs at once.
4. In the last week, read only the facts asked more than once and the lines you have not yet ticked.

TRAP · THE NEAR-MISS OPTIONS

MCQ options are built from facts that sound alike: Kusuf and Khusuf, Makki and Madani counts, Qaynuqa' and Qurayzah, the first and second migrations to Abyssinia. Learn such pairs together, as the lines here set them.

Part One — The MCQ Fact Bank

The facts below are arranged by the nine areas of the objective paper, in the order of how often each area has been tested (2015–2026). Each line gives the fact with its answer in bold. Cover the bold and test yourself.
